Red CryPoints/Sec:

54 Blue doesn't like the idea of Red 4 having more CP than he does, so he moves to a good firing position and fires a missile at red's mine.

Blue fires a dumb missile, because they're cheap:
Only 10CP. He selects his tank with a right click, drags the mouse to select a circular menu option, then clicks and drags again to fire.

Red sees what is about to happen and frantically tries to do something.
Unfortunately, he's not a good enough shot to fire down the missile, and he doesn't have enough CP
yet...
